Have you being...

Crying yourself to sleep because you can't stop thinking about your break up? Feeling helpless because your partner won't talk or listen to you when you mention getting back together? Feeling CONFUSED and SHOCKED by the break up because you can't figure out WHY your ex left in the first place? Searching endlessly for a solution on exactly what to do, say or act to make your lover want you back again? Feel your situation is UNIQUE and you can't seem to find the answer you need anywhere? Fear it's too late because you've made all the classic mistakes already?

Hi, my name is Ashley and I know EXACTLY how you feel. I struggled when I became SUDDENLY SINGLE after 6 years in a relationship. I remember I spent the first few weeks crying, going through the break up over and over; trying to construct ways I could get the relationship back and constantly questioning WHY and HOW this could have happened.

Boy, were those times hard! I didn't know what I was going to do and barely cared about anything anymore. Have you felt the same?

If you...

Just had your heart broken and don't know what happened. Broke up with your Ex and then regretted it. Still in love with your Ex. Still in love with your Ex who is with someone else! And want a STEP-by-STEP PROVEN system to get your ex lover back...

Then, be sure to read every word of this page because the secret to getting back together with your ex is hidden in this article. First...

STOP!

I must warn you now...There are

7 Deadly Mistakes That's Killing Your Chances... Are You Making These Right Now?

Are you making these mistakes?

Calling your partner constantly after the break up. Saying "I Love you" over and over and how much you can't live without them. Trying to convince them that you'll change and everything will be different this time. Begging and crying, acting out of desperation in the hopes that they will feel i'sorry± for you and take you back. Trying to use reason and logic to get them to come back. Resorting to arguing, blaming and guilt trips when all else hasn't worked. Doing absolutely nothing because you're afraid to make things worse.

Let me be BRUTALLY honest here... If you want your ex to be REPULSED by you... if you want the fastest way to push them into the arms of someone younger and better looking... if you want to DRIVE AWAY any love your ex has for you, then I'd say "go ahead", making any of these mistakes will lead you down that road.

But if that's NOT what you want, you CAN stop your break up & REVERSE the situation TODAY. Let me show you exactly what to do that will eliminate any desire to make these mistakes ever again! But first...

Imagine for a moment...

Your Ex showing up at your door or calling you out of the blue just BEGGING to get back in a relationship with you. They're so emotional they can barely speak!

OR you can literally REVERSE TIME and regain instantly that PASSION, LOVE and CONNECTION you felt for one another in the beginning of the relationship... now it'll be like you can't get ENOUGH of each other again!

OR you waking up each morning with your lover by your side and see that look in their eyes when they look at you, completely full of love and desire. They're heart belong to you and ONLY YOU!

Now, let me tell you, that is NOT just a dream or fantasy.

I'm excited to say you're about to have your problems VANISH as if into thin air... all your questions answered within the next 30 minutes to an hour!

As you read more of this article, you'll learn the secret on how to get your ex boyfriend, girlfriend or spouse back using unstoppable tactics.

Now, I want you to listen to this simple concept.

"In order to GET what you want... you must be READY for it first."

When people get a wish they're NOT ready for... they lose it. But you don't want to get your ex back only to lose him or her again.

80% or more of couples who reunite after a break up, BREAK UP again within the first 1 - 3 months. What happened? Couples RUSH back into a relationship, only to find all the old problems present.

Let this be a warning to you because many "get your ex back" products deal with "quick fix" solutions that don't last! Not only that, these so-called "quick fixes" end up doing EXTRA DAMAGE to your relationship that has LONG TERM consequences!

Keep reading because I'm about to reveal exactly what you SHOULD do...

Are You One Of The 90% Who Have NO Clue How To Win An Ex Back? Gain The Insider Secrets with The FIRST step to winning your lover back...

The first step is to regain POWER of the relationship. That power comes from your MIND and how you consciously and subconsciously feel about yourself and your relationship.

Regain INSTANT POWER over the relationship by: Turning your attention and energy away from your ex by focusing on yourself! Give the "idea" of cutting off all contact. Possess the "I don't need you" attitude (not desperate, panicked).

You might be wondering "What does all this mean?" Let me explain each point to you...

Focusing all your energy on your ex right now will NOT bring them back. Focusing your energy on work, school or other non important things also will not bring your ex back. You need to focus on GROWTH and IMPROVEMENT on YOU - the things that will have a direct impact on your ex as well!

I believe No Contact Rule is misused to the point where it actually works against people. It works to some extent if the whole idea is to get an ex to call you or to miss you, however to GET AN EX BACK, you must go BEYOND this rule.

That's why to give the "idea" of cutting off all contact is a lot more satisfying. This means you're setting the rules and boundaries for your relationship, you're "taking control" and you command your ex's RESPECT. You do this by giving your ex SPACE and NOT confirming to being "just friends". You must do this no matter what's going on with your ex right now.

And the last point, in order to possess the "I don't need you" attitude, you must become the OPPOSITE of needy and desperate - this will make you instantly regain POWER of the relationship.

Now, as you think about how to regain power over the relationship, you might want to have a look at this...

You Can WOO and MAGICIALLY Pull an Ex Back to You - This Is How It's Done

There are PSYCHOLOGICAL triggers that are present in ALL HUMAN BEINGS... in fact these are so hardwired into us that MOST people (if sane) fall for these with little or NO resistance. These psychological tactics are EXTREMELY powerful and virtually hands you the key to getting anyone to do whatever you want them to do!

I wonder how quickly you'll act on my advice once you understand how powerful and potent it really is...

Get your hands on this secret system now...

A Powerful & Potent STEP-by-STEP System to Get Your Ex Lover Back

"The Ex Recovery System"

I've been spending the last year meticulously putting together a POWERFUL and PROVEN system that steps you through the EXACT blueprint - what to do, say and act and when - for bringing your lover back. Not only will it show you the exact, step-by-step blueprint to re-attracting your lover's heart. It will show you an in-depth psychological break down of your break up.

The ugly truth is there is NOT a lot of time. Research shows that the average time-frame for couples to reunite - if they were to reunite at all - is within the 3 month mark after a break up.

The thing is, what PREVENTS most couples from reuniting within 3 months is usually due to an ex partner seeing someone else.

As you can see time is NOT on your side and you need to act FAST! "this has got to be the best so far"

I've bought many "get your ex back" products, and this has got to be the best so far. I think that you covered a lot of areas, such as long distance relationships and if the ex is seeing someone else. Everything was very detailed and the examples were great. The interactive journal is the best thing ever!

When I broke up with my ex, that was exactly what I needed. I didn't know how to sort out my feelings, I just didn't know where to begin, and the journal was the best thing to turn to. I learned so much about myself, my ex and the relationship just from filling out that journal alone.

"a journey to self discovery"

This is perfect! its great! well written and straight to the point! made me realize a lot of things about myself, my ex and our past relationship... its like a journey to self discovery, it awakens you to what kind of relationship you really want and deserve... a path towards happiness and better things in life!

"excellent product"

An excellent product with lots of detailed information.. it was very helpful, especially the analysis section on where the relationship went wrong in the first place.

"As close to a one on one session with Ashley as you can get"

A great book that's hard to put down, Ashley provides a lot of insightful and actually useful information that not only helped me tremendously, but gave me the tools to become a better person along the way. As close to a one on one session with Ashley as you can get, without actually being in the same room. Priceless!

If You're Sitting There Wondering...

"What Are My Real Chances To Win My Lover Back"?... Once you try this system, you'll find 3 critical factors when determining your chances:

You Must have the RIGHT system in place. You Must have the RIGHT mental mindset. Your ex's FEELINGS about you.

The Ex Recovery System covers ALL 3 of these crucial factors. Unlike competing products out there that seems to only focus on one or two of the above.

I firmly believe 90% of successes we achieve STRONGLY depends on our MENTAL mindset. That's where the real magic happens. This is why the Ex Recovery System focuses heavily on getting the RIGHT mental attitude to put the rest of the plan in place.

50% of the book is also dedicated to understanding your Ex - not just general ideas about man or woman - but YOUR ex in particular.

You'll find out:

Exactly how your ex feels about you - no guess work necessarily, this is all you need. Whether they still have feelings for you - I show you how to interpret their actions or lack thereof so you know exactly what's going on. What your ex is thinking right now - virtually your own mind-reading device, you'll love this Why they do what they do (does some of their behaviour confuse you? Now you'll know why!) Much more all dedicated to your ex.... Get Started NOW!

Your Time is Running Out... Don't Sit and Wait...

Here is the truth. Most people don't leave a relationship unless they have someone else on the side already.

It is very likely your partner is seeing someone else right now. The aim of the rebound is to emotionally distance their feelings as quickly as possible, so they transfer their feelings onto someone else as a distraction.

The problem is a rebound could last for months or even years, sometimes they even turn into marriages! The longer your ex is with someone else, the more attached they will become. Your job is to quickly position yourself as the #1 alpha male or woman between your competition as early as possible.

You need to act fast. It's not as scary as you think once you know exactly what to do. You can literally steal your ex away from under their new guy or gal's noses.

The More You Read The More You'll Want to Learn
The Secret "Recipe" for Putting Your Relationship Back Together...
"The Soul of a Relationship"

As you know, one of the unique aspects of The Ex Recovery System is its in-depth look at the REASONS for a relationship break down.

Relationships have a thing called SOULS, they are the lifeline of a relationship, the things that MUST BE present in order for it to stay alive. The soul of a relationship is made up of TWO components:

Masculine needs and feminine needs. The things a MAN requires in a relationship are different to what a WOMAN requires in a relationship.

When you gain power over the relationship, you'll be able to EASILY fulfil your partner's needs. When that happens, you'll literally have them in the palms of your hands... they will NEVER want to leave you... ever.

I have created a SYSTEM that virtually hands you the recipe to putting a relationship back together. This step-by-step blueprint will show you quickly how to get your partner falling all over themselves to get back in a relationship with you.

How I Discovered & Created This System...

My own break up came during my last year at University where I was majoring in Graphic Design. I was at quite a low in my life and even worse when I discovered Graphic Design was NOT something I wanted to do anymore. Somehow through all the PAIN I was in over the break up, I found a new DESIRE to do something with my life.

This new desire or PURPOSE led me down a path I never intended to take. I started to read and study Relationship dynamics and Human Psychology like a maniac until I stumbled upon a "secret formula" for winning back love in a book.

Unfortunately, the book I had found mentioned nothing about the PRIMARY NEEDS of a Relationship. The CORE reasons why relationships fail and the MINDSET you must possess in order to get an ex back.

These were things I found to be CRUCIAL because so many people were coming to me asking "I don't know exactly why my ex left, he just said he fell out of love, how can I get him back?" or "My situation is different and No Contact only made my ex never talk to me again."

I read and studied countless books online and offline searching for exactly WHY people do what they do and what the EXACT FORMULA for getting someone to get back with a past lover. These were books on relationships, getting an ex back, human psychology and influence as well as dating/pick up artist genre books.

After many chats about this with Psychology Major friends of mine, I was able to create the BEST and most COMPLETE system on getting a lover back.

Why You Won't Find This Information Anywhere Else On The Planet...

I don't know why, but they certainly don't teach this sort of stuff in school. I think it's because all relationship counsellors and the like would be all out of a job.

There are also a very limited amount of books available on this subject due to the fact that it is SO specialized. I mean, if you go to your local bookstore, you'll find rows and rows of SELF-HELP books or relationship help books but they're only helpful if you're still in a relationship. Nothing centres around repairing a relationship ONCE IT'S OVER.

And when you do look for help, either from friends, family members or even forums online, you'll find a lot of:

°Oh you should just move on.±...°You can find someone better.±...°That relationship isn't worth going back to±. Etc.

Why? Apart from the fact that it's much easier to say °just move on already± instead of offering REAL help - most of the time they just don't know either!

The truth is there is nothing more important than the relationships you have and maintain with others; especially romantic relationships.

Think about it, when are you the happiest? For me, it's when I'm in love and my relationships are going great! When are you the most miserable? Is it when your relationship isn't where you want it to be?

And when your relationship suffers so does everything else in your life. Suddenly, you can't concentrate at work anymore, you'd rather stay inside than go out, you can't stomach food and you find it hard relating to people anymore. You're not YOU anymore.

Does It Really Work?

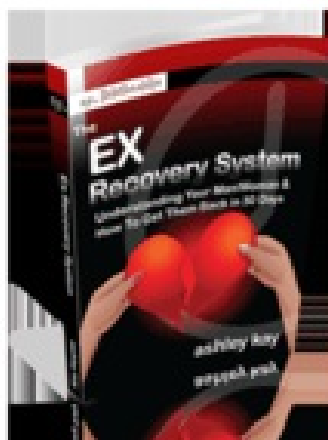

Alright, I know this is a risk to take however I am 100% confident you will turn your love life around and get your ex back if you follow the Ex Recovery System.

The Ex Recovery System have helped even the most IMPOSSIBLE of situations. This isn't a "feel-good" product like so many out there are. This is over 130 pages of PURE CONTENT, no filler crap, that tells you exactly what you need to do, act or say.

Even if you feel your situation is unique, I've found that the core dynamics of a relationship - masculine and feminine needs, as well as relationship needs are what brings two people together no matter WHAT situation you're in. You can't be immune to it because this is based on human nature.

Relationship counselors charge upwards of $125 an hour to give similar types of information. However they won't reveal all the secrets and techniques because they want you to keep coming back to them. That's why I'm proud to be able to offer this full service to you (I lay out all of my hidden secrets and techniques on the table) for such a low price.

In fact, I've been advised the RAISE my prices many times because it's so insanely low for the amount of value that I'm providing. To be honest I want to keep the price low so I can help as many people as possible but I WILL be raising them VERY soon so if you're thinking about purchasing, I'd do it NOW before prices go back up again!

Why the Ex Recovery System Is Unlike Other Products For Sale Online...

I've had an in-depth look at other "Get Your Ex Back" products out there and even some of the free advice floating around (especially on forums), all I can say is, in terms of FREE information, you get what you pay for. Even some of the paid stuff is rather "generic", and quite frankly I'm disgusted to see people charging money for information that anyone can easily pick up for free online.

Most of the products out there can be summed up in one sentence... "Use No Contact for 30 days, in the meantime work on yourself and then contact your ex for a date."

That's about the gist of it! They don't tell you what to do:

If you can't maintain no contact. If you're friends with an ex. If your ex won't accept a date with you. If your ex won't even talk or see you. If you're in a long distance relationship. If you see your ex everyday due to work, school or family commitments (kids).

And that's only a small chunk of the things they leave out!

Another reason I created the Ex Recovery System is that I saw a HUGE lack of interactivity within other products. You can't expect to use a one-size-fits-all solution and hope that it will work the same way for you as it did for someone else. Everyone's situation, although similar, is different!

This is why I've created an "full-blown interactive step-by-step system" that is suitable for YOUR specific situation - it's like having your own personal relationship adviser interactively showing you exactly what to do and what to say to get your ex back. You won't find this ANYWHERE.

Male & Female Psychology... Ex Recovery System Covers BOTH

Although the Ex Recovery System is suitable for both men and women, it DOES take into account the fact that both MEN and WOMEN require different needs and have different PSYCHOLOGICAL TRIGGERS.

Many products out there promoted to both genders try to outline only the stuff that works for BOTH genders, HOWEVER I've taken it a step further. Men and women DO think and communicate differently, which is why you must use slightly different approaches depending on if you want a man or a woman back.

Here's a super IMPORTANT fact about men and women...

MASCULINE and FEMININE traits (or male and female psychology) can be cross-gendered as well. Meaning a man can have feminine traits and a woman can have masculine traits. This means, you can use the information provided in the Ex Recovery System for BOTH genders to your FULL advantage.

It's like you're getting 2 books for the price of 1!

Just imagine getting back together and being able to... Feel their arms and their lips around you again. Be filled full of ENERGY and EXCITEMENT about life again. Share the most precious moments of life with (getting pregnant, having kids, getting married, growing old together). You'll have someone to go on trips and holidays with. Be a part of a family again. "...repair the damage I've done..."

Thanks Ashley!

Just wanted to say well done! I have never come across a more in-depth detailed book on getting my ex back. The explanations concerning the psychology of relationship was extremely helpful in understanding all I've done wrong in my previous relationships as well as making me realize what I what from them.

By far your interactive journal helped the most, really making me start Doing something to repair the damage I've done. Now I'm smarter and more active in my current relationship, having the best time of my life.

Thanks again for all the great work,

Everything happening as planned in the book!

I like how there are always little warnings to help you cope with the method and the reasons these techniques work. It has helped me to deal with my breakup. I am now set up to get back or move on, and do either successfully.

I am still in the process, but so far everything has worked according to plan. I started to avoid texting and contact until i was ready. I she texted me after a few days of not contacting her coincidentally the same day i wrote and sent out the initial contact letter... everything is going to plan exactly as in the book.

Frank

Read it 3 Times now...

I just want to tell you how much I enjoy your book.

I have read it 3 times now and it has taught me a lot and I know that the knowledge will be very useful in the future whether or not she gets back with me.

It s been a week since she stopped calling and I am in NC..."giving her space". I feel that I am running out of time but we ll see.

Again thanks for providing this wonderful product.

Joel

Download The Ex Recovery System He is now contacting me first, asking how i am! I was constantly asking myself why we split up and section 2 What Really Went Wrong really helped to settle my mind and explain things enough so that i stopped asking why.

Section 3 - Psychology Behind the Breakup, Although upsetting, explained why he did things the way he did.

The guidance on the initial contact made me take a huge step forward as i felt in control for the first time.

The only section i had no comfort from was the control techniques, but understanding the way the brain works was fascinating and made me understand how to break the emotional cycle.

I sent the initial contact letter (well email actually!) and was suprised to get a reply the next day. I was delighted to hear that he didn t want me not to contact him and he seemed positive about the changes i had started to make.

He is now contacting me first, asking how i am! I think you advise about taking charge of the situation by setting the rules really helped me to take a step forward with the grieve process

I loved the overall product! I loved the overall product. It has been very helpfull to me personally. I would have to say the part I liked the most is the letter of acceptance to your ex. I have not yet done it because I am waiting until I am sure of the acceptance. However, I have been separated for close to 3 yrs and just recently my husband met someone and wants to persue the divorce. I have complited with his request and signed the inital petition for divorce. However, I there was one thing that I feel you should zone in on more are those individuals, like myself that have children and have to stay in contact with their ex. That is very had. We have children that are in sports and require their dad and I to have constant contact. It is very hard. Also, he feels that it is necessary to try and make a connection between his new interest and his kids. I on the other had to not feel that same way.

Excellent! Got Ex Back In Under 30 Days...

I thought it was excellent. So many things I would've done wrong were different because I read this and knew what to do, and not to do. I did get my ex back in just under 30 days, and we are actually happier than ever. I didn't have any obstacles, the system worked perfectly for me, it was incredible.

Download The Ex Recovery System Really Excited...! I am really excited about this product! I'm currently at the "focus on me" stage and have 30 days before actually "winging my ex" back in. The most helpful parts have been "do you really want your ex back", and the initial contact. The contact call just occurred two days ago and it went very well! He was so shocked that I was of the telephone within 15 mins. (I know you recommended 10, but the other 5 was his part of the convo). I could also tell he was impressed that I didn't whine, cry, or beg...as well as left a lot of personal detail about the stuff going on in my life outside of him.

The section that could be elaborated upon more is the providing more examples of phase 1 in the indirect method. Although I haven't reached that part, the only example is "smoking/drinking"...I would suggest focusing on the real break up examples- (i.e. commitment issues, finances, intimacy, trust, fidelity).

Also, I would like you to address "other people" during this break up phase- not on the ex's end, but on our end. How/when do we tell our ex we've been with someone else after them, although it wasn't serious...and what if the ex uses this as a reason not to get back with you.

Gave me a good understanding... Very useful in giving me insight of why relationship ended, I had some idea of the reasons but this really gave me good understanding

It also made me realise how my behaviour post break up was driving him further away & it has been really good at giving tips on how to act

Download The Ex Recovery System Yes, I got my ex back! Yes, I did get my ex back!

I think your product is very good. Concise. Easy to understand.

The best parts were the sections on regaining confidence and self esteem and self examination.

I feel like there's hope...

so far it helps keep me thinking there's hope for getting my ex-back. i like to read it over and over and i feel like there's hope. i get inspired and it keeps me wanting to stick to the plan to achieve great results. hopefully it all works out in the end. im hanging in there

Not full of clichés like some products I have seen. It was helpful because I think in essence you can only work on yourself and change yourself - and that was highlighted in the book.-

Back Together And Planning a Trip Away!

I wanted to drop you a line to let you know I am back together with my ex...In fact, we also just planned a trip to Cabo for October. You and your system were a huge help and I wanted to extend my gratitude.

All the best,

Kim
